A Year of Good Things

By Avery Jackson

It has been a fun year in this house! We've thrown parties, made new friends to laugh and cry with, and we have loved each other well. 2015 was wonderful, but 2016 will be even better.

Why?

Because we love each other and appreciate the different God-given strengths each person brings to the table.

Each resident, staff member, and even critters - like our Chief of Staff, Elbert - brings in something unique to Alderman Oaks.

Walking through the front door of Alderman is similar to waking up to a sunny day. Residents and the folks at front desk are always ready to greet you with a cheerful hello and smile. Thanks to the activities department, there is never a dull moment! They can get you out and about or help get your creative juices flowing. We have residents and staff members who know how to give advice on hard life issues and encourage you on a daily basis. Holiday Spirit is contagious as well, because everyone comes together and dresses to the nines to create a fun, festive mood for every occasion! The kitchen staff comes up with AMAZING, homemade meals and desserts that keep everyone happy, healthy and well fed. Our healthcare team makes sure that all doctor details are taken care of and everyone is as healthy as possible. The entire housekeeping team keeps this place - from the bathroom toilets to the living room carpets - spotless and are ALWAYS seen with smiles.

Every single person who lives or works here makes a difference.

Our home has cheerful hearts and glad countenances, something not many places can boast about. Be proud of how you treat yourselves and each other! Continue making Alderman Oaks a place where people build each other up through encouraging words and loving actions.

Thank you for making 2015 a wonderful year; you are ALL appreciated.

New babies, craft parties, Mr. and Mrs. Clause visiting from the North Pole, and unforgettable nights make up 2015.
