

Don't Be A Victim!

Learn How to Make Yourself a Hard Target for ID Theft and Fraud

Friday, December 8, 2023
2:00 PM to 3:30 PM

SEMINAR TOPICS

- Identify Elements of Different Scams Such as Phishing Emails, Text, Romance, Advanced Fees, Taxes, Carding, and Other Scams
- Properly Handle Robocalls – Phone Scams
- Better Protect Yourself From ID Theft
- Overview and Discussion About Cyber Crimes
- Steps to Take if You Have Been Victimized

Seating is Limited!
To RSVP
Call (941) 955-9099
or Go to Our Website.
AldermanOaks.com

PROGRAM PRESENTER

 Youthful Aging
HOME CARE

Erin Mace
Director of Corporate Relations
Youthful Aging Home Care
YouthfulAgingHomeCare.com

Erin is a Certified Fraud Examiner. Prior to her current role at Youthful Aging Home Care, she managed a fraud investigative unit. Erin conducted corporate investigations relating to ID fraud, automotive fraud, embezzlement, and intellectual property (ID Theft).

Erin will discuss the difference between ID Theft and ID Fraud. She will also provide tips to recognize when you are about to be scammed, steps to make yourself a difficult target of ID Theft/ID Fraud, and steps to take if you have been targeted.

This Program is Part of the Cornerstone LifeCare Education Series. Go to the Events Page on CornerstoneLifeCare.com.